Sharing Our City's Stories

Our blog was created in July 2014 as a way to entertain and educate the public about heritage issues and cultivate an appreciation for our city's rich history.

Vision

We hope to start conversations about the importance of maintaining and preserving built heritage in an accessible, personable, and engaging manner. Our goal is to inspire the public to cherish, support, and enjoy this priceless resource.

The Millennium Centre at 389 Main Street is the birthplace of Winnipeg's heritage movement
